

Hanna Marbun LL.M. (Oslo)

One of Hanna Marbun's main areas of activities is structured ship finance.

Hanna Marbun advises banks, investment funds and shipping companies on ship financing, including bilateral and syndicated loans, restructurings and sale and leaseback transactions. In addition, she also advises clients on shipbuilding projects, ships sale and purchase, corporate law issues as well as registration of ships and mortgages in various jurisdictions.

Hanna Marbun is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales. She is also qualified as an advocate in Indonesia.

Short Biography:

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 2008 - 2012 | Bachelor of Laws at the Universitas Indonesia in Depok (Indonesia) |
| 2014 | Completion of a special training for lawyers and exams at the Indonesian Bar Association PERADI (Indonesian Advocates Association) in Jakarta (Indonesia) |
| 2012 - 2017 | Worked for Widyawan & Partners in Jakarta (Indonesia), in conjunction with Linklaters in the "Banking and Project" practice group |
| 2013 | Secondment at Linklaters, Singapore |
| 2017 - 2018 | LL.M. (Maritime Law) at the Scandinavian Institute of Maritime Law of the Universitetet in Oslo (Norway) |
| since 2019 | Employment at EHLERMANN RINDFLEISCH GADOW |
| 2019 | Admission as Indonesian Advocate (Advokat) |
| 2023 | Admitted as Solicitor of England and Wales |

Languages:

English
Indonesian

Contact Details:

Email: marbun@erg-legal.com
Phone: +49 40 37 48 14 0