

Dr. Klaus Dimigen Partner

Klaus Dimigen gives advice to shipowners regarding the sale and purchase of vessels and the entering into charter and management contracts.

He assists banks as well as shipowners in the area of long-term ship financing loans, the establishment and separation of banking syndicates related to long term ship financings and in connection with the termination, enforcement and transfer of shipping loans. He also supports shipowners on all corporate and insolvency related issues. Finally, he advises non-bank capital providers in connection with alternative ship financing models and structures.

Being admitted for practice in Germany, Klaus works on all German law related matters, such as hypothecs, account pledges or matters related to entities incorporated in Germany and contentious matters, whether related to shipping or not.

Klaus Dimigen is also admitted to practice in the Republic of the Marshall Islands. He provides opinion letters related to this jurisdiction, gives advice on corporate matters and pursues contentious matters at the High Court in Majuro, Marshall Islands. Also, the Marshall Islands law related work is not limited to shipping.

Klaus Dimigen enjoys a long-lasting relationship with Turkish shipowners and shipping banks.

Short Biography:

1988 - 1993	Studies at the University of Passau
since 1993	Employment with EHLERMANN RINDFLEISCH GADOW (since 1997 admitted to the bar)
1997	Completion of the legal clerkship in Hamburg with the second state examination
1999	Doctorate at the University of Hamburg on the maritime topic "Bareboatcharter and Bareboat-Registration"
since 2001	Partner at EHLERMANN RINDFLEISCH GADOW

Languages:

German
English

Contact Details:

Email: dimigen@erg-legal.com
Phone: +49 40 37 48 14 0