

Richard Henderson

Partner

Richard Henderson has more than 25 years of experience advising banks, shipowners and investors in connection with the financing of ships, shipbuilding contracts, acquisitions and sales of ships and shipping-related businesses and restructuring of financings.

He has also advised clients extensively on other shipping-related contracts, such as LNG project tenders, offshore industry contracts, joint ventures and pooling agreements.

Richard Henderson is the author of a post-graduate course on ship finance at Lloyds Maritime Academy in association with the World Maritime University, where he is also an occasional lecturer.

He has also written and taught a post-graduate diploma course for Shanghai Maritime University and is also one of the original authors of Euromoney's Book on Shipping Finance.

Short Biography:

1985	Graduated from King's College, London (UK)
1989	Admission as a Solicitor in England
1987 - 1996	Worked at Slaughter and May and Stephenson Harwood in London and Hong Kong
1990 - 1991	Worked in Copenhagen and Oslo, for Danish and Norwegian law firms
1997 - 2000	Worked at Watson Farley & Williams, London
2000 - 2011	Partner at Watson Farley & Williams, London
since 2011	Partner at EHLERMANN RINDFLEISCH GADOW; set-up of the firm's London office

Languages:

English

Contact Details:

Email: henderson@erg-legal.com
Phone: +44 20 7118 1111